

Role Sheets

You are one of the owners of the Golden Belt Manufacturing Company from Durham. The owners of the other two companies want you to give them the plans to the tobacco bag-stringing machine.

You are one of the owners of the Millhiser Bag Company from Richmond. You would like the Golden Belt owners to give you the plans to the tobacco bag-stringing machine.

You are one of the owners of the Chase Bag Company from Reidsville. You would like the Golden Belt owners to give you the plans to the tobacco bag-stringing machine.

You are a tobacco bag stringer from Leaksville, North Carolina. Your husband (or wife) who used to work at the tobacco factory is out of work. You need the money to buy groceries for your family. You have children.

You are a tobacco bag stringer from East Bend, North Carolina. Your husband (or wife) is very sick. You have children. You need money to pay for doctor bills and medicine. You also need rent money.

You are a tobacco bag stringer from Wilkes County, North Carolina. Your husband (or wife) has died. You are left with four young children.

You are a tobacco bag stringer from Reddies River, North Carolina. You are taking care of your sick parents.

You are a young man (or woman) who lives in Richmond, Virginia. You would like to get a job at the Millhiser Bag Company, but they are not hiring now. If they get the new machines they will need someone to work on them.

You are young man (or woman) who lives in Reidsville, North Carolina. You would like to get a job at the Chase Bag Company, but they are not hiring now. If they get the new machines they will need someone to work on them.

You are a man (or woman) that has spent money to help the Golden Belt Manufacturing Company buy the stringing machines. As long as the company does well, they give you more money back.