

Plott hound

The Plott hound was officially adopted as the State Dog of North Carolina on August 12, 1989. It is the only dog breed that is officially recognized as having originated in North Carolina. Johannes Plott brought the original dogs to North Carolina.

Plott hound articles in NCpedia:
<http://ncpedia.org/symbols/dog>
<http://ncpedia.org/plott-hound>

Coloring page: <http://www.supercoloring.com/pages/plott-hound/>